Anecdotes & Reflections

by Louise Betcher
illustrations by Gail Kort

These essays "sing a sparkling love-song to life, its manifest pleasures: home and hometown, geese and grazing horses, sunsets, the supermarket and Saturday morning. ...But Louise Betcher's vision of life, rooted deeply as it is in the place she knows and loves, transcends it too, for words that illuminate the lives lived in one place illuminate them all. We live in one world. Louise makes it shine."—Don Wallis, editor, the Yellow Springs News
